Excelsior---the school that we love: with the buildings that have grown old so gracefully; with its lawn that stays green all year; and with the victory bell in the quad around which much of the student life centers. But, is this scenic beauty what makes us loyal to our school? No, but it is the feeling of warmth and friendliness that one feels in our school, that makes this place beautiful to us.

On Campus, we have the Flight Deck, which is a fairly new building. The students look at it, with a feeling of pleasure, not just because it is a pretty building, but rather, because it is a place where they can meet their friends and have lunch with them, the same goes for our Cafeteria.

The Boy's gym holds a special sentimental feeling with the boys. It is the place where many have met opponents in sports events, and where many have sat as spectators. The Girl's gym holds the same attraction for the girls. It has been the scene of many of the school dances and play-days.

The Victory Bell is one of great attachment for the students of Excelsior. It is proudly rung, when our school is the victor in an athletic contest, but, oh, so, quiet, when we have met defeat.

The Auditorium is where all our assemblies and musical events take place. It is the setting for the Christmas play, for the Spring Swing, and other appearances that our school band and choir make.

Truly, this is the beauty of Excelsior High School.

Foreword

1954-55; a school year which has been an enjoyable one. The world around us has been faced with problems of unrest and confusion. It has been a year of war troubles; a year of financial worries to many in our community. However, to others it has meant contentment and security. Our town has continued to grow in industry and population. Our school has expanded too. Our faculty is now larger than it has ever been before. With the removal of the Artesia students from our school, it has made our Student Body a little smaller. We, the students of Excelsior, have watched many of our former classmates progress along life's path. The Senior Class is now leaving the school; some fearing to start life on their own, others confident in themselves and their ability to provide the necessary elements of life. As we march down time's trail we need something to lighten our load. What better medium is there than music to do this? That is why the El Aviador staff chose our theme to be "Rhythm and Blues."

Dedication

Each year the Annual Staff has the responsibility of choosing the person to whom the annual is to be dedicated. They are picked on the basis of friendly and outstanding service to the school. This year we have selected a person who was always there with a cheerful smile when needed. She has worked hard to make our school life a pleasant one, full of activities and entertainment. She has placed "A Song In Our Hearts."

So to this person, we of the Annual Staff proudly present this, our 1955 El Aviador, to Mrs. Wilda Yates.

ADMINISTRATION

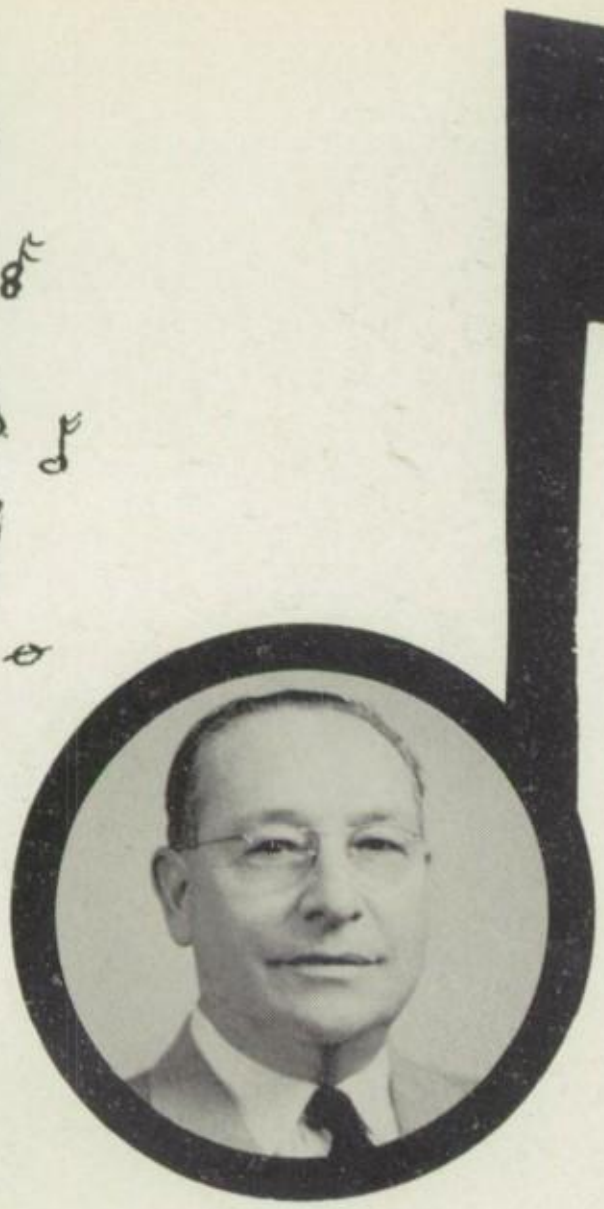
SUPERINTENDENT--The impresario of Excelsior is Mr. Ralph Burnight. During the nine years which he has been superintendent he has striven to help the student body by furthering and aiding their self-government. As the District Superintendent, his most important duties have been to represent the school to the county, state, and federal Departments of Education and to administer all of the schools in the District.

Mr. Russel Utterback

BOARD OF TRUSTEES--The Excelsior High School Board of Trustees was composed of five members, one from each division of the district. The Board's main legislative and monetary job was to pass on all the important matters concerning the school. The Board meetings were public and were held on the first Thursday of every month and were presided over by the President Mr. Russel Utterback.



Mr. Arthur Kulzer

Mr. Al Sommers

Mr. Dale Donnell

Board of Trustees

THE PRINCIPAL--A principal is to a high school what a director is to an orchestra. When Mr. Richard Gahr rapped his baton on the bandstand and stepped on the podium, our school life at Excelsior began. He saw to it that the entire school program functioned rhythmically. One of his main jobs was to establish and carry out the school policies, as planned by the Superintendent and Board of Trustees. In addition, the discipline, appearance at meetings, and working with the Parent Teachers' Association were his responsibilities. As a result of Mr. Gahr's efforts, Excelsior became one of the top ten of the hit parade of schools.

GIRLS'VICE-PRINCIPAL --
Another year of directing the Girls' Symphony, keeping the girls in key and straightening out the sour notes, has been completed by Miss Lucille Tombs, Girls' Vice-Principal. She wielded the baton on activities and dances and produced the daily bulletin with a pleasing counterpoint.

MISS LUCILLE TOMBS

MR. ROBERT ASHTON

BOYS' VICE-PRINCIPAL--
Mr. Robert Ashton has held many positions at Excelsior; including boys' physical education coach and Director of Athletics. He resigned from the latter in 1953, and was appointed Boys' Vice-Principal, and in that capacity he has created harmony among the boys.

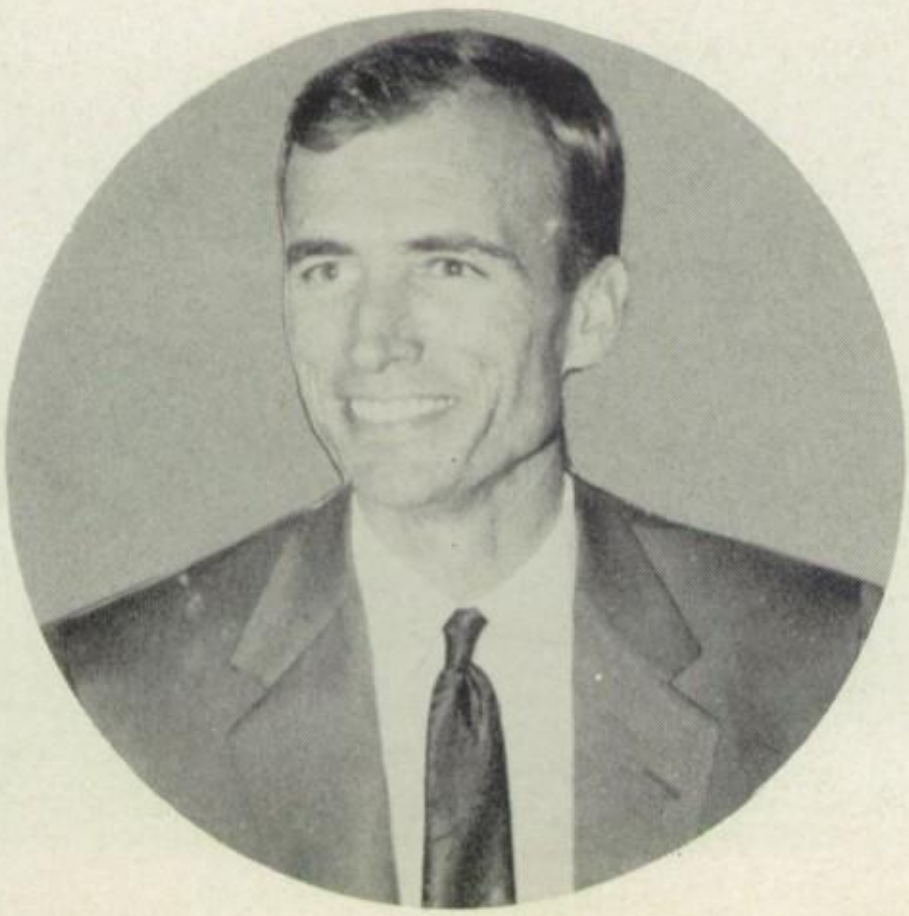
DIRECTOR OF GUIDANCE & CURRICULUM--Mr. Alonzo Valentine, last year's counselor for the Sophomore class, replaced Mr. Richardson Hastings, as Director of Guidance and Curriculum. Mr. Hastings is now Principal at Artesia High School. Mr. Valentine's job consisted of planning the courses which suited the student and supplied his need. This and other of his important duties kept Excelsior's curriculum in a steady rhythm.

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT AND BUSINESS MANAGER--Mr. Henry Korsmeir, Excelsior's very capable assistant superintendent and business manager, has done an outstanding job again this past year. In serving Excelsior for the last eight years, he has managed our school budgets, finances, accountings, purchasings, care of buildings and has helped our business affairs run smoothly.

DIRECTOR OF ATTENDANCE--It isn't easy for a "truant note" to miss the attention of Mr. Richard James. His duty as Director of Attendance was to find those "lost chords" and put them back on key, as well as keeping the absentee and student detention lists. You can sum up the job he did in four notes. "Dum-De-Dum-Dum."

SOPHOMORE COUNSELOR--Mr. Maurice Joyce, whose hobby is food, and plenty of it, spent his working hours being active around Excelsior this year. He served as Sophomore counselor and worked with Leadership as well as trying to make Student Council a more effective and more vital part of student government.

UNIOR-SENIOR COUNSELOR Miss Elizabeth Watkins as the Junior-Senior counselor advised the students in the changing of their classes and helped with registration. It was her smile and friendly advice that helped create melodic relations amongst the students and faculty.



FRESHMAN COUNSELOR--One of the very fine counselors at Excelsior was Mr. Ted Chenney. Last year was his first time as a counselor for the freshman class. He also taught American History. This year Mr. Chenney was acting as a full time counselor for first year students. In addition he has been a Junior Class advisor for five out of his eight years here at Excelsior.

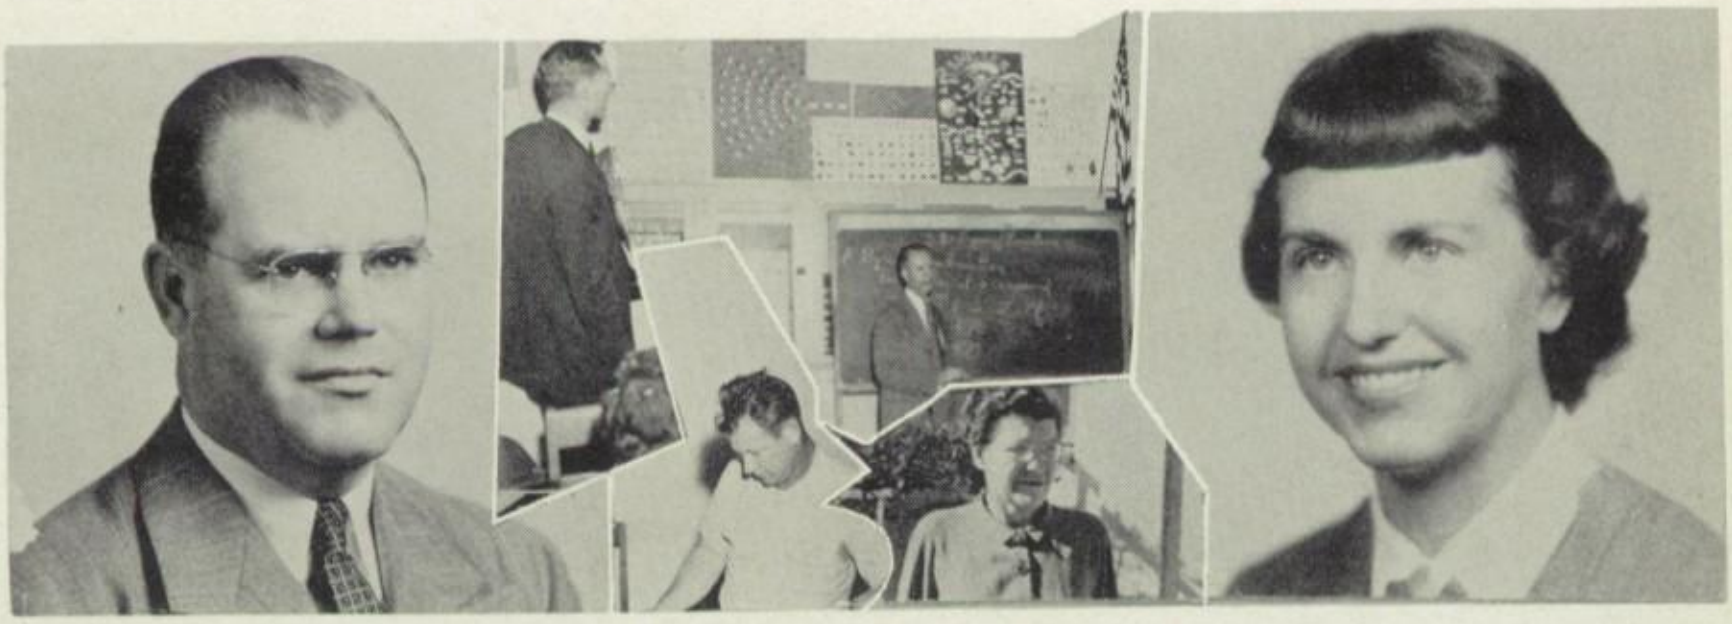
FACULTY ASSOCIATION--The Faculty Association was an organization chartered by the California Teachers Association. The purpose of this club was to promote the welfare and social activity among members of the faculty and administration. The Excelsior Chapter voted to award a fifty dollar scholarship to Excelsior's outstanding student who was a member of the Future Teachers of America.

R. Eissler, President; G. Curtis, Vice-President.



FACULTY ASSOCIATION OFFICERS--The Faculty Association like any other organization had its club officers. They were Mr. Robert Eissler, a commercial teacher on Excelsior's campus, serving as president; Mr. George Curtis, Chairman of Boys' Physical Education, was vice-president; Mrs. Anna Kerr, English teacher, was secretary and Miss Eva Williamson, also a commercial teacher, was treasurer.

SECRETARIES -- The secretaries were the backbone of the school. Whenever help was needed you could be sure one of the many secretaries was there to help. They helped form the bridge between the students and the faculty. One of their jobs was to keep the student and financial records straight. As the downbeat is important to a song, so were our secretaries important to the smoothness of the running of our school.

CAFETERIA WORKERS -- Row 1: D. Hogan, B. Burkhar, R. Gregory, M. Hoy. Row 2: M. Bordon, L. Boyd, J. Davenport, H. Galbreath. Insert - V. Redmayne.

CAFETERIA WORKERS -- In music we refer to a group playing together as "vivace." This word could have well been used to describe the cafeteria workers, who did not play, but worked hard under Mrs. Viola Redmayne, serving us every day.

FLIGHT DECK WORKERS -- The Flight Deck Workers, advised by Mr. Robert Eissler were a group of students also serving in the food department, who willingly gave up their snack and lunch period to supply the students with food of their choice.

FLIGHT DECK WORKERS -- N. Hamilton, J. Blandenship, Co-Student Heads.

BUS DRIVERS--D. Schoen, R. Osborne, O. Zwinge, O. Miller, L. Ballard, C. Standlee, H. Armstrong, L. Cowen, J. Jennings, L. Boone, S. Sims, G. Bottema, V. Prewett, M. Thornton, R. Beauchamp.

HEAD OF TRANSPORTATION--Mr. Howard Steward.

BUS DRIVERS--This last year, as in many others, Excelsior had to use buses to transport students to and from school. Many workers were required, not only for this driving, but for maintaining and cleaning the buses. There were sixteen regular drivers and a few extra men to fill in when needed. A chorus of drivers worked together to keep the wheels singing and motors humming.

CUSTODIANS--A custodian's job is sometimes difficult, but has proved to be very necessary. This year Excelsior's custodians were headed by Mr. Ben Stanfield. Their duties were to keep the campus clean, fill special orders for teachers, and keep the rooms neat and warm. Every day when school was dismissed the custodians went about the task of cleaning up after students and teachers.

HEAD OF CUSTODIANS--
Mr. Ben Stanfield.

CUSTODIANS--E. Cade, L. Alkire, W. Kempton.

FIRST SEMESTER LEADERSHIP CLASS--The First Semester Leadership Class, under the direction of Ted Ross, has many duties to perform. Every bill or amendment that is added to the constitution of the school has to go through Leadership Class. Last year they continued with the campus clean-up program and passed a bill so the song leaders and yell leaders could hold office for a school term. The head of every organization and the student body officers are members of the class.

SECOND SEMESTER LEADERSHIP CLASS--With the change of the semester and the election of new Student Body Officers, a major change took place in the Leadership Class. Instead of being called to order by the usual male voice, Glenna Joy, Second Semester President, took charge, The group established a set of by-laws to abide by, and a list of goals they hoped to reach. It proved to be a hard working class with many accomplishments.

SECOND SEMESTER LEADERSHIP--ROW 1: M. Fortin, D. Fallon, S. Bock, J. Harris. ROW 2: G. Plains, J. Munoz, B. Hamano, G. Joy. ROW 3: T. Ross, Mr. Joyce, B. Harris, S. Valdez. ROW 4: B. Lee, R. Kruckenberg.

STUDENT BODY USHERETTES--One of the many organizations at Excelsior that helps promote harmony, is the Student Body Usherettes. Advised by Mr. Keith West, these thirty-two girls ushered at such after school functions as the Christmas Play, the Junior-Senior Play, and others. The Chairwoman of the group was Connie Singleton, and the Co-Chairwoman was Pat Coffman. There was no official uniform for these girls, but often at evening performances they could be seen in formal gowns.

COMMAND PILOTS--Four years ago, a different type of disciplinary group was set up at Excelsior. This organization, composed of boys with the necessary qualifications, has been functioning ever since. It was their duty to keep control at the football and basketball games, assemblies and on the campus. They patrolled the halls during both lunch periods and the campus was very orderly this year as a result of their work.

COMMAND PILOTS--ROW 1: J. Rubin, J. Rittenhouse, N. Riggs, L. Smith, B. Deniz, J. Brown, Mr. Joyce, C. Utter, R. Raulston, B. Longden, R. Ross, E. Shackelford, W. Lapointe. ROW 2: B. Jones, B. GIRLS' LEAGUE--"A Girl is Like a Melody." Many song titles can bring back memories. This title reminds many a girl of the rhythmical way the Girls' League functioned. A memory which will always remain outstanding was the Christmas gift to the Orthopedic Hospital. Under the leadership of their president, Stella Valdez, and capable cabinet, this and other activities were accomplished.

GIRLS' LEAGUE CABINET--ROW 1: S. Collicott, S. Valdez, G. Carrera, D. Cates. ROW 2: J. Monroe, K. Megerle, M. Walton, P. Coffman, S. McClung, T. Rypkema.

BOYS' LEAGUE--As songs climbed to the top of the Hit Parade during the year, so the Boys' League, a newly developed organization, showed steady progress. Guiding the Boys' League was their President, Gary McDaniels. Also elected by the boys was Jess Munoz, who represented them in leadership.

GIRLS' LEAGUE USHERETTES--ROW 1: D. Reed, S. McClung, A. Lopez. ROW 2: H. Vought, D. Brannon, C. Munoz. ROW 3: A. Gamboa, P. Oakland, S. Bouse, C. Pingira. ROW 4: S. Smith, G. Joy, S. Collins, F. FRIENDSHIP COMMITTEE--Making Excelsior a friendly place for new girls this year, the Friendship girls in their green and white dresses, were like the score to the conductor, showing them the way to their classes and activities. This group was headed by Janet Monroe and Connie Singleton. Activities sponsored by Friendship were the Pi-Lo-Ti party and teas during the year.

WAYS AND MEANS--The money makers for the Girls' League, known as the Ways and Means, could usually be seen around campus in their green and white dresses selling donuts and candy. The head of this committee, sponsors of the annual "Sadie Hawkins" Dance, was Thelma Rypkema.

SENIOR CLASS--The Senior Class started off the year with a bang. First came the sweaters which were yellow with a brown letter. Then the other things that make up a Senior's year. Memories of the Prom. . . .the senior dance, "Sleigh Ride". . .Homecoming. . .class rings. . .senior pictures. During the last week came the caps and gowns. . .Baccalaureate. . .annual Signing: and the last night. . . Pomp and Circumstance. . .the best class ever. . .the diplomas. A carefree affair, but no one was blamed for the tight feeling in the throat which ended the year.

JUNIOR CLASS ADVISORS
Mr. C. Rust, Mrs. H. Bryan,
Mr. J. Stein.

JUNIOR CLASS--"Shake-Rattle-and-Roll" was what the Junior Class did this year as they "Rocked-Around the Clock" with their many activities. On the Junior and Senior Recreation night they had a "Riot in Cell Block No. 9", meaning of course in the girls' and boys' gym. In order to get "Money Honey", they held donut sales, and they also picked their Senior sweaters. The Junior girls served as honor guards at graduation thus adding color to this memorable occasion. Everybody had fun at the Junior-Senior Prom which was one of the biggest highlights of the year.

Miss R. Phelan, Mr. J. Brames, Mrs. A. Kerr.

SOPHOMORE CLASS--The old adage that the first year was the hardest proved to be true, because this last year was much easier for the Sophomores. No longer were they bewildered scrubs. The class of '57 got into the swing of things with the help of their advisors, Miss Regina Phelan, Mrs. Anna Kerr, and Mr. John Brames. Under the leadership of their president, Ben Harris, they engaged in many illustrious doings. The main activities were the annual Sock Hop, the Sophomore Party, Donut Sales, and the Sophomore Assemblies.

FRESHMAN CLASS ADVISORS-- Mr. W. Murdock, Mrs. M. Templeton, Mr. A. de Heras.

FRESHMAN CLASS--When a song is born, it may either be a hit or a miss. In this same manner a new class was born as the Freshman Class. Under the leadership of their president Rodney Kruckenberg, they produced a hit. Keeping in tune with the steady rhythm of the other classes, the Freshman Class organized their officers, ran a smooth government and also had a big hit of a class party. Working along with the class and guiding them in their decisions were their advisors, Mrs. Margaret Templeton, Mr. Arthur de Heras, and Mr. William Murdock.

Rounding out the year was a steak fry, held for the members and guests which was prepared by the coaches.

GIRLS' LETTER CLUB--"The meeting will please come to order." "Now as you all know we are the Girls' Letter Club with Miss Regina Phelan as our advisor. We have qualified for membership in the club by having eight quarters of girls' after-school sports to our credit." So said President Margie Martinez this year.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM--The Junior-Senior Prom was a big hit this year, being held at Compton Junior College. The Prom, always one of the biggest events of the year, was a beautiful sight to see with the colorful formals and costumes. The night started off with a song from Carol Wax and his orchestra which played heavenly music through the night. The Juniors served delicious refreshments for the Seniors. Money was earned for the dance by having donut sales and also from the Junior-Senior Play.

EXCELSIOR "PILOT" BAND--Times have changed and years have passed, but the Excelsior Pilot Band marches on in its harmonious order. Their colorful gray and green uniforms lent color and luster to all the events in which they participated. Under the supervision of Mr. Raymond Bowman and Dick Thayer, Drum Major, the band entered many musical events in the past year and took part in the half-time activities during football games. Some of the activities in which they played were the Arcadia Parade, the All Western Band Review, Spring Swing, the National City Parade, and the Band Concert.

They represented Excelsior on the Gene Norman Show and played during the intermission at the Band Concert. This group of musicians added another important note to the scale of school life at Excelsior.

DRILL TEAM AND HIGH HATTERS--"A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody" and we had lots of melodies and pretty girls in our Drill Team. Under the student director, Peggy Vought, and faculty advisor, Mrs. Betty Belden, the group performed at all the football games, during the half time, and before the game. They worked exceptionally hard to put on a successful program for the Homecoming Game. The student opinion was "a job well done."

MAJORETTES, BANNER BEARERS, AND FLAG TWIRLERS--A school without full representation is like a violin without strings. They both lack the strings that create harmony; one does not notice an instrument if music does not flow from it. Thus, one does not notice a school from which sufficient representation does not flow. The Flag Twirlers and Banner Bearers, under the advisorship of Mrs. Betty Belden, and the Majorettes guided by Mr. Ray Bowman, succeeded in completing and adding the strings to their violin. Appearing in school activities, such as football games and rallies and also appearing before the public in parades; all contributed to the flow of complete representation which these and other groups together made possible.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR--Headed by Mrs. Wilda Yates, Choir director, the choir has been successful in the past year. The highlights of the year were singing at the Excelsior Christmas Concert and for several hospitals. Their voices rang out with cheer and greetings throughout the year.

LYRIC CLUB--In white robes and red-necked stoles, a group of girls, directed by Mrs. Wilda Yates, blended their voices in perfect harmony as they performed for many of Excelsior's activities whether the mood was blue or a gay and rhythmic one, the girls always came through.

FRESHMAN GIRLS' CHORUS--Learning the fundamental rules one must follow in a choir, were the members of the Freshman Girls' Chorus. This group, directed by Mrs. Wilda Yates, did much to promote music appreciation at Excelsior.

BAND CONCERT--An outstanding musical production held at Excelsior, for the first time, was the Band Concert. The program presented various school talent. Playing the most active part in it was, of course, the Excelsior Band, who did a marvelous job with their performance. Working harmoniously with the band and backing it up were the band boosters, a newly formed organization, which worked to promote many band activities. The proceeds from the program were used for the benefit of the band and also for a banquet in their honor, which was held later in the school year.

HOMECOMING--This year's homecoming played an appropriate part in keeping with our musical theme. The homecoming theme was, "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody." Composing the melody were the pretty queen and princesses; Queen Pat Squibb, and princesses Pat Allen, Pat Johnson, Peggy Vought, and Dagmar Cleavinger. The entire program which lasted that day and night was carefully planned by the senior class. Reminiscing alumni and students alike all enjoyed the colorful homecoming halftime. The halftime consisted of an appropriate song played for each princess and the queen by the Excelsior band. Adding the finishing notes to the melody were the drill team, song leaders, flag twirlers, majorettes, yell leaders, the high hatters, and other groups.

VARSITY FOOTBALL--The Varsity Football Squad started its '54 season against underrated Newport Harbor, and came out of it with a 7-7 tie. The next foe was the new rival of Monrovia. The Aviators defeated the Wildcats by the close margin of 7-6. Excelsior played Compton in the league opener and lost 12-0. The next game made up for the loss when the Pilots dumped Poly by the score of 37-7. They came right back the next week and walloped Jordan 27-7. Excelsior's Homecoming game was played against Downey. The Vikings won 19-0, after tying the last two seasons with the Pilots 7-7. The next tilt was with Wilson who won 13-2. Playing their last game of the season with Lynwood, the Pilots lost 20-0. With that game coming to a close, the 1954 season also came to a close, in which Coach Bryan Robinson's Varsity squad came out with a two win and four loss record for fifth place in the Pacific Coast League. All in all, the Varsity Eleven showed great defensive and offensive games. Chosen as the team's "Most Valuable Player," was Gary Cropper. He was also selected for the C.I.F. All-Coast League eleven. Excelsior's "Most Valuable Lineman Award" went to tackle Wayne Skeen; and Mike Ricker was Chosen as the "Most Valuable Back." With most of the Varsity first string graduating seniors, Coach Robinson will have to dig down in the JV's and Bee teams to find players for his 1955 squad.

CEE BASKETBALL-The Cee Basketball Team finished its non-league season with 6 wins and 6 losses. For the first time at Excelsior, Don Berberet coached the Cees and his efforts were marked with success. Leading scorers of the team were Smith, Kruckenberg, Vaughn, Aragon, and Haagsma. Most of these boys will help make up the Bee basketball squad next year with plenty of Excelsior spirit behind them.

DEE BASKETBALL-The "Little Pilots" of Excelsior were the mighty Dee basketball squad. Also coached by Don Berberet, the midgets came out of the season with an impressive record of eight wins and one loss. For the third consecutive year the Dees were not in a league, but again had some of the toughest competition anywhere. The leading scorers were Topper, Rybold, Painton, Dyer, and Rogers.

COACH
John Newman

VARSITY TRACK--The Varsity track squad, under the supervision of Coach John Newman, started on their season in good form. Although there was less than a dozen boys out for the squad, they showed great determination to win their meets. Members of the team were Marvin Fortin and Dennis Dressel, shot-putters; Paul Bockemohle, again back at the pole vaulting; Joe Sotelo at the broad jump; and the remaining boys in racing events. Most of the Varsity squad were returning lettermen from last year's Bee and Varsity squads.

BEE TRACK--ROW 1: L. Kirby, E. Smith, J. Kilby, K. Matsumoto. ROW 2: J. Choate, J. McDevitt, W. LaPointe, H. Mendenhall, R. Yaggi, M. Aregood.

Joe Sotelo

BEE TRACK--The Bee track team, made up largely of last year's Cee and Bee squad, proved to be a great competitor against the other teams of the league. Starting out in great style, the Bees gave all they could to a successful season. Coached by John Newman for the second straight year, the Bees vied in such events as the 440, the high hurdles, broad jumping, pole vaulting, high jumping, and shot-putting.

R. Burford and E. Smith

CEE TRACK--Outstanding Cee track men this year were: Ron Hulce, Seigi Sakamoto, and Keith Stallings. All were tops in their category. Keith Stallings shot put the ball 49' 6"; Seigi Sakamoto competed both in the sprints and hurdles, and Ron Hulce had spreadeagled the high jump, broad jump, and the 100 yard dash.

CROSS COUNTRY TRACK--The boys who go out for the long running events make up the Cross Country Track team. They had to have plenty of strength and wind to run the distance this event required. Going through a fairly successful season, Coach John Newman's crew hopes to be better in the years to come. Most of the boys go out for the other divisions of track later on.

VARSITY BASEBALL--ROW 1: B. Brownlie, H. Cole, W. Skeen, G. Nichols, S. LaBue, F. Montecalvo. ROW 2: G. Cropper, D. Rash, D. Hertneck, G. Payne, R. Boone, S. Day. ROW 3: G. Berg, J. Arredondo, J. Ellison, C. Hardin.

VARSITY BASEBALL--With the remodeling of the baseball diamond and the new backstop, the Varsity squad had a lot to go out and work for. Last year's Junior Varsity squad, the Varsity team, had a very successful year. The returning lettermen included B. Brownlie, G. Nichols, W. Skeen, and C. Hardin. The team played their first game on March 1 against Anaheim, and closed against Lynwood on May 17.

Under the supervision of Coach Les Billinger, the JV squad had a lot of newcomers who came up from the newly organized freshman baseball team of last year. With a fine experienced squad, Coach Billinger was well pleased with the performance of the squad.

GYMNASTICS--The musclemen of Excelsior have proved their strength as a gymnastic group. Under the supervision of Coach George Curtis, they participated in rope climbing, the rings, the parallel bars, the tumbling mats, and the newly organized teams of wrestling and boxing. They competed against other schools in these events. Their training helped to build their bodies strong and healthy. With all the facilites and equipment, the boys worked hard to master their events.

GYM ASSISTANT--Rhythm and blues can well describe Mrs. Mae Steward's work and personality. Mrs. Steward, girls' gym assistant, certainly displayed rhythm as she went about supplying the girls with their towels and equipment. Her understanding personality chased away many a girl's frequent blues and in her they found a reliable friend.
